SHEEP.

There is more inquiry for sheep by buyers who are in or contemplate going into that business than there has been for the past several years. It is the only industry that the contraction of the currency has not fatally crippled in this State. Although the price of wool has been falling for years, the wool growers are about the only ones engaged in our varied industries who have withstood the financial depression. A very industrious and intelligent gentleman, who has been in the business in this country only three years, informs us that if he can get 10 or 12 cents a pound for wool for the next four or five years he will be willing to quit the business, go back to the old country and live like a lord the balance of his days.—Silver State.

Sherman is fighting the Bland Seigniorage bill in the Senate and proving that the Republican party, notwithstanding the assertion of the ten office holders and office seekers of Nevada, is opposed not only to free coinage, but to the coinage of silver seigniorage. Will Messrs. Bartine, Fulton, Turretin & Co. please make a note of Sherman's speech and explain it when the "cuckoos" meet again!—Journal.

COAST NEWS.

It is believed the Renegade Apache, Kid, and his followers are in the Rincon Mountains, a short distance from Tucson.

Two freight trains on the Southern Pacific met in a head end collision near Colton and half a dozen cars were wrecked. The fog was very heavy at the time.

Two porpoises at San Pedro are having a fiesta in San Pedro Bay over the dead fish which have appeared in numbers lately, the water being literally crammed with them.

H. M. Olds, living five miles south from Napa, while hunting, attempted to climb through a fence and to draw his gun after him, with the usual result. His son found him dead.

Testimony in the Heath case is being taken at Fresno. It is similar to that taken at the first trial. Mrs. McWhirter, widow of the murdered man, repeated her evidence Saturday.

W. S. Lloyd, who was rescued from the Sacramento river last Tuesday, and who had attempted suicide, died from pneumonia contracted by his cold bath. He has relatives near Bangor, Maine.

The ten-year-old son of William Green, at Gold Flat, Nevada county, fell backward into a washtub filled with scalding water, and was so badly injured that no hopes for his recovery were given by the physicians.

The Indians in Mohave county, A. T., are becoming very superstitious about the Government Indian schools. Quite a number of their children have died in the schools and others have died a short time after getting home.

John Peters of Ena Mills and Rudolph Junkins of Waverly, Trinity county, were caught and killed Monday afternoon in a snowslide near the summit of Salmon Mountain, on the trail between Sawyer's Bar and Waverly.

Judge W. W. Morrow recently at San Rafael saved Mrs. W. Jones and her children from death in the flames of the lady's home. He performed the act at the risk of his life, and emerged from the burning structure blinded by smoke and bruised. The lady had discovered her house was on fire, and rushed upstairs where her children were asleep, and fell beside those she hoped to save. Judge Morrow found her there and carried her and the children to safety.

The country editor seldom gets anything for what he leaves out of his paper, though he ought often to be paid for his apparent ignorance.—Lumbly Index.

It's the city editor, Jim, who gets paid for this sort of ignorance.—Mid Winter Appeal.

The last two or three days have been just like spring.

"Let me give you my dying advice," said Rufus Choate. "Never cross examine a woman. It is of no use. They cannot disintegrate the story they have once told. They cannot eliminate the part that is for you from that which is against you. They can neither combine, nor shade nor qualify. They go for the whole thing, and the moment you begin to cross-examine one of them, instead of being bitten by a single rattlesnake you are bitten by a whole barrelful. I never, excepting in a case absolutely desperate, dared to cross-examine a woman."
